DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-121 are subject to the following restriction requirements.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-34 and 88-105, drawn to vectors encoding ATF6 and methods of treating cells or subjects with the vectors.

Group II, claim(s) 35-51, drawn to methods of treating of cells and subjects with ATF6.

Group III, claim(s) 52-87, drawn to methods of treating cells and subjects with compounds that increase or decrease the level of endogenous ATF6 expression.

Group IV, claim(s) 106-121, drawn to determining whether substances increase or decrease the activity of ATF6.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The special technical feature shared between inventions is a functional form of ATF6, whether encoded by a vector, used to treat cells, or used to determine if a substances alters its activity. Zhu, et al. (1999) Molecular and Cellular Biology, 17(9): 4957-66 (disclosed by Applicant and hence will not be addressed in detail until the first action on the merits) discloses a functional form of ATF6 (e.g., TITLE), and hence, teaches the special technical feature shared between inventions. Moreover, each invention requires distinct examination and search criteria. To wit, inventions I and II each require distinct considerations of their respective methods of administration, and what is required to obtain the response, as well as the structure of the molecules administered, invention III requires a consideration of the scope of the compounds and how they increase or decrease the expression, and IV requires a consideration of the activities of ATF6 and how or whether the activities may be altered, and how to analyze such. Such non-coextensive search and examination considerations demonstrate that the inventions do not share a general inventive concept.

Art Unit: 1633

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
